BIBLE LEAGUE.

A Convention to be Held This Month in New York City—Work Outlined.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES

NEW YORK, May 8.—Another convention of the American Bible League, of which the Rev. Dr. Daniel S. Gregory, general secretary, is to be held in New York City May 14, 17 and 18. The first meeting was at the Marble Collegiate Church, where the league's first convention was held just a year ago. It was a gathering especially notable because of the presence of the Rev. John Trumbull, then Secretary of the Scouting Service, on topics which is spending a few weeks in the United States on his way to Australia. Mr. Trumbull, in his address at the convention, his topics were "The Book of Jonah History or Parable?" "The Book of Jonah: Archeological Critic and the Archeologist's View of the Book of Prophecy." The purpose of the American Bible League, as has been demonstrated by his publications, to organize the friends of the Bible, to promote a more intelligent and practical and systematic study of the sacred volume, and to maintain the historic faith of the Church in the inspiration and infallibility of the sacred Scriptures, and the supreme authority as the word of God." In its discreditable and memberless condition, the society, representing practically all Protestant religious bodies, has no moral influence, and will have two general objects: 1.) Belief in the integrity and inspiration of the Bible, 2.) The practical application to Christianity. The Bible as the inspired word of God, the only authority for Christian life and achievement.

One of the speakers at the convention will be the Rev. Dr. Frederick Wright, of Oberlin, who will address upon glacial biblical geology, his topics being: "Geological Confirmation of the Bible," "The Flood," "From Abraham to Exodus," and "Contributions of Geology to the Credibility of the Bible." The historical address will be that of the Rev. Dr. M. G. Kyle of Philadelphia, who has just published a book on "Some Gems Recovered from an Old Bible." The address will be on "Some Gems Recovered from an Old Bible."

LONG ROSTER OF CASUALTIES.

Salt Laker Victims of the Salty, Salty Sea.

Excursionists Lose Things on Trip to Avalon.

Commercial Club May Decide to Prolong Journey.

"Casualty list was enormous," was the report that was sent ashore from Catalina Island yesterday. To the great horror of those on land, the plan was forthcoming until the Salt Laker returned in the evening. Then the tale was told how the politician and the business man, the apostle and the brewer had all paid toll to the sea.

There was no actual loss, with a few exceptions, on the excursion of the Salt Lake visitors to Avalon. Apostle John Henry Smith lost his balance and his breakfast. Apostle George A. Smith nearly lost his hope men of San Pedro and the visitors. The steam tug Warrior escorted the Catalina off of San Pedro harbor with the band playing in honor of the guests.

Upon arrival at the island the ever-ready photographer was on the spot and the Salt Laker was the first to be photographed. As it was the first and probably the last time such an island crowd as that would ever get on to an island in the Pacific, everybody was very anxious to be in the picture. The party of Salt Laker were the guests of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce at the Hotel Metropole. Over one hundred and fifty Salt Laker people sat down to a very enjoyable dinner. It was a particular treat to the Utah people to eat the fresh fish that was specially caught for them. All the fresh fish that is eaten in Salt Lake has to travel nearly one thousand miles. Quite a number of the visitors had their wives and families with them, the latter having been spending the winter here.

Fish stories were the only regrettable feature of the trip. Inspired, no doubt by the dinner and the glass bottom boats, "Baldy" Harris got the disease. He began on Chairman Skinner of the Chamber of Commerce. "Baldy" Harris, always suave, delightful man to meet. He makes an ideal secretary of the Commercial Club, but his fish stories came near cracking the glass bottom of the boat. "Baldy," said ex-Gov. Wells, "I am going to form a union on fish stories. Then you won't be able to work that yarn overtime any more."

On the return trip the Red Cross ambulance was almost as much in demand as on the way over. George E. Carpenter of the Desert News, began to think he was a war correspondent to visit that city, and he, the guest of those bodies. A committee of three was appointed, consisting of Joseph E. Caine, Dr. W. P. Beer and J. S. Bransford, to find what arrangements can be made for transporting the members. If the Southern Pacific will make satisfactory rates, the Salt Laker will probably make the run up to Frisco. The committee has orders to report tonight.

All the members of the club have been requested to be present at the meeting in the Angelus banquet room tonight. Matters of importance will be up before the members. Several resolutions of thanks have to be considered, drawn up and passed, and other matters must be considered.

This morning the Salt Lake visitors are to be shown the agency from Mt. Love.

The train will leave the Pacific Electric building at 2:30 o'clock, and the visitors can return individually at their leisure.

The only other plan outlined for them today is the meeting this evening.

EXCURSION TO RIVERSIDE.
A trip to Riverside is being arranged by the Salt Lake road for the visiting members of the Salt Lake Commercial Club. A special train to carry the visitors will leave the First Street station, Los Angeles, at 9 a. m. Thursday. A stop of a half hour or so will be made at Pomona so that the Salt Lake City men may meet representatives of the whist of people of that city. The Riverside visitors will be guests of the Riverside Chamber of Commerce. The return to Los Angeles will be Thursday evening.

would like to say, and which only the natural delicacy that they feel in their capacity of guests of this community prevented them from saying. For obvious reasons this gentleman asked that his name be not used, and when he was assured that his confidence would not be betrayed, he continued:

"It is not a Mormon excursion. We are not all Mormons, not even a majority of us, and we do not like to be constantly reminded of it. Mormon. Back in our home State the line between Mormon and Gentile is more closely drawn than you of the outside world can realize. We don't carry our own local troubles and the world knows little of the intensity of the jealousy existing between the two factions."

Wherever we go we find that the people at large have a mistaken notion of the character of the population of the State of Utah. We hear every-where there are a lot of hearing it, that the Mormons have done this, the Mormons have done that, the Mormons have done the other. They would have us believe that they are a whole responsible for the development of our State, and that we Gentiles are simply along for the ride. If they have been their labor; that we are like scale on a fruit tree, fattening at the expense of the tree and its fruit. It is not true, and I don't care what the Mormons say, the history of our State shows that it is not true. I have nothing to say about their religion, but I object to being classed with a sect which I positively know has been anything but progressive at home. It was the Gentiles who did the really big work of bringing Utah to what she is today. They did it, too, despite the Mormon element, for in all work which did not originate in and have the sanction of the Mormon church, there have been the part of obstructionists and have endeavored to prevent the success of measures which were manifestly for the good of all the people.

"I will admit that when they came to Utah there was very little there. Had they been able to do so, they would have excluded all other persons from the borders of the Territory which they appropriated; indeed, history shows that they tried to do this with arms, but that was long ago, and the record of Gen. Johnston, commanding the United States troops that were marched into Utah to suppress a Mormon rebellion, in history. If they had been left to themselves Utah would not be what she is today. It is due to the Gentiles that the State has prospered, and we who are not of their church keenly resent being classed with them, although on occasions like this, many of us would hesitate before expressing our feelings."

"In his speech at the Chamber of Commerce meeting the other night, Reed Smoot (who, by the way, is not yet a United States Senator) made certain obscene hints about 'knockers' and 'knocking'. If they have been any knocking in Utah—and there has been a good deal—it is the Mormons, not the Gentiles, who have been the chief offenders. Smoot protested his ineffable love for the flag; but true lovers of the Stars and Stripes are those Americans who habitually obey the country's laws."

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

THE social world has its own way of heralding the passing seasons. Even in California, which is spoken of as the land of afternoon and of perpetual summer, the approach of the real summer is marked by alfresco entertainments, when all sorts of people of that city, the River-side, are to be seen at the garden that God planted eastward in Eden.

Society is now looking forward to the garden party to be given by Mrs. Andrew Glassell at her stately home, "Tetherford," in Tropic, on May 11. The handsome grounds, with velvet lawn and wealth of shrubbery and flowers, will be a beautiful setting for the affair, and Mrs. Glassell has some unique plans up her sleeve which will be a surprise for the afternoon. On the return trip the Red Cross ambulance was almost as much in demand as on the way over. George E. Carpenter of the Desert News, began to think he was a war correspond-street, Miss Josephine Escarona of Santa Barbara becoming the bride of Charles Le Grays, Rev. Charles Naudman of Christ Church officiating. The bride was profusely decorated with wild flowers, roses and palms. Miss Sophia Molin acted as bridesmaid and W. Uties was best man. Little Ruth Kork was flower girl and was dainty

All About Whist.
That delightful hostess, Mrs. Lewis Clark Carlisle, entertained the Duplicate Whist Club yesterday morning. The beautiful rooms had been garnished with gillyflowers, and presented a symphony of color, shading from deep violet to the faintest hue of pink. The twelve ladies who form the club were the guests. Mrs. Carlisle also entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Howard.

The Thursday Night Whist Club, that cozy little organization of eight couples, meets this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester C. Ashley, on West Seventeenth street. The Iroquois Whist Club will be entertained the evening of May 11, by H. Ettley, at No. 411 West Twenty-second street.

At the Orpheum.
The sixth and seventh rows of the Orpheum Monday evening presented a blaze of color. There were women in bejeweled and fetching evening gowns and men in evening regalia. "Who are they?" everyone was asking, and they learned that the Bohemian Whist Club had decided to vary the order of its soirees for the nonce and attend a performance at the Orpheum, instead of playing whist. An enjoyable repast at the Orpheum grill finished an enjoyable evening.

Those in the party were: Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Seymour, Dr. and Mrs. B. Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Otis Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wren, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clark Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pease, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, Miss Bertha Jones, Mrs. Abbie Lee Buckley, Mrs. Hattie F. Pura, Miss Florence Whelan, Mrs. L. O. Collins, George Taylor and Will Graham.

MISS W. F. McANN.
will be few refusals, for the hospitality of the Glassell home is well known, and reminds one of the olden time, when Tetherford Castle, in Scotland, was the home of the Glassell family.

For Beautiful Church Grounds.
A charming young matron of the Pico Heights, Mrs. W. F. McAnn, has lately been interesting herself in the beautifying of the grounds of the already beautiful Church of St. Thomas the Apostle. She is a present member of this church, and on the evening of May 18 her handsome home will be thrown open, and a musicale of a high order will be given, the proceeds to go toward the above-stated purpose.

It is entirely the plan of the energetic lady herself, and she has arranged for a lawn fete in the large grounds of her home at No. 1123 Dewey avenue, to succeed the musical treat. Prominent among those assisting are Mrs. Alice Stevens, Mrs. W. L. LeSage and Miss C. DeValle.

Return from Parliament.

She will remain there until October and will pass the summer with Mrs. Wren. Mrs. Wren is planning to join her daughter. Mrs. Wren is planning to join her daughter. Mrs. Wren is planning to join her daughter.

THE COUNTRY CLUB.
Upon the return of Salt Lake "boomers" from Los Angeles, it is probable that the Country Club of this city will begin immediate action to build a new home for the coming season. A transfer of the Young farm on the Ninth East-street car line near Twelfth South street, has been made to the Salt Lake Security and Trust Company, to be held for the Country Club. The property is a beautiful spot in a much more accessible spot than the one occupied.

CALIFORNIA VEGETABLES.
Vegetables from Southern California are arriving over the San Pedro, in sizeable lots, and the amount will increase with the road's facilities for shipping. Citrus fruits are being shipped also in large quantities. Refrigerator cars for eastern points.

Beneath Wild Flowers.
A pretty wedding took place Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kork of No. 112 South Flower supper was served at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Booth, No. 429 South Olive street. About seventy-five guests witnessed the service. The young couple left for a short wedding journey.

Jolly Surprise.
A jolly surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Abbott at their home on West Twenty-eighth street on Friday evening by their daughter, Miss Bessie, the occasion being the twentieth anniversary of their wedding. The guests assembled at the home of Mrs. E. G. Budreau and proceeded in a body to the Abbott home, much to the surprise of the couple. Games of twenty-two were played and later a dainty supper of cakes and bon bons was served. The guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Abbott with a beautiful china tea set. Many a girl who graduates from high school or female college with a brilliant record and high standing is broken down before she is twenty. Nowadays girls are pushed to the limit of their endurance both in school and society. They must make a success—even if they are forever unfitted for the larger school of life and debarrd from wedded happiness and the bliss of motherhood.

At this time of life, when just entering upon womanhood, nature makes heavy drains upon the vitality, especially at each monthly period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

the most wonderful of all tonic restorative medicines for women, will tide a young girl over this trying time and bring her safely into strong, noble, beautiful womanhood.

Experience of a Beautiful High School Girl

My DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to you to say if you can suggest some means to cure me. A little more than a year ago I was sick with menstruation for the first time, and since then I have been sick all the time in some way or other and suffered with painful and irregular menstruation. I want to a summer resort for my health and was doctor all summer, but to no effect. I have not menstruated for two months and thought I would write to you if you could do me any good. I attend High School and would not like to miss any time if it is possible. MARGARET BARRETT, North Adams, Mass.

After eight years' possession of Judge Altamira's court at Fresno, the plaintiff in the suit of the Argentine Oil Company for the possession of section 25 of the Midway property, worth several hundred thousand dollars, has won his case yesterday.

The case was argued by the attorneys for the Section 75 defendants, George H. Short, Charles G. Whitcomb and George E. Whittaker, against the company represented by placing on the stand of Parker Street, one of the Dover locations on the station of the defendant since the year 1901. Barrett described the defendant of that Chancellor and said he had been living up there since December 31, 1906. This road, the plaintiff had declared, cost Chancellor and himself $100,000. The road had evidently been made with money and a V and he believed that it was a private road. He said it could have been done by one man or a four-hour team in one day.

The quality of the evidence of Los Angeles and P. E. Twining of Fresno, were on the stand yesterday to establish the validity of the pyramid found in section 25.

Horse Hits Salsman.

A runaway horse, dragging a pair of buggy shafts, dashed in front of a car at Fourth street and Broadway at noon yesterday and ran over W. A. Macey, a salesman employed at the Broadway Department Store. Macey was knocked down and badly bruised on his face. His injuries were treated at the Receiving Hospital.

Bolster, said to be an ex-prize fighter. He is a very fat man and a very short man. He says that Jeffries would have to train down to his weight. He is alleged to have been selling liquor in the back end of a barbershop.

Grain Rank! Cherries Drooping.

"Unseasonably cool, cloudy weather, with rain early in the week and at the close, was not altogether favorable to vegetation, which needs sun and warmth," says the weekly climate and crop service bulletin of the Weather Bureau. "Rank growth of grain some places was lodged by heavy rain, but the country generally was benefited, as the surface had become hard and dry. There was considerable wind during the week, which somewhat neutralized the benefits of the rain. The unusually cool, damp weather was especially noticeable in the mountain cherry and apple sections, where cherries are dropping, and it is feared apple bloom is injured."

LASH STINGS
ON HIS NECK.
Wrathy Mrs. Long Horsewhips Constable.
Worthy Potts Runs in and
Out of Trouble.
Picturesque Legal Episode on Sunny Hills.

A sad and painful experience befell worthy Constable Potts yesterday when he attempted to put the ban of the law upon an indignant dame in the Highland Park hills.

Worthy Potts was last seen with locks rampant-erect.
Stay! What is this distant bounding over the far hills, musing up the horizon with giant strides?
Why this is Potts.

Why did not Potts stay and place the ban of the law upon the lady?
Potts had lost interest in the ban of the law—but not the lady.

In the picturesque hills across the valley from Sycamore Grove is the mountain cot of Mrs. Belle Long and her husband, in the order named.
Lately Mrs. Long has fallen foul of the law. The recreation most women find in golf and pink teas, Mrs.
Long finds in lawsuits. In the last week she has been sued two or three times. About yesterday morning constable with papers had begun to pull on Mrs. Long.

POTTS THE SURPRISE.
It was the unhappy lot of Worthy Potts to be the one who was too many.

He went yesterday morning over the hills with the firm intention of attaching a carriage in the possession of Mrs. Long, she having had a dispute with the Parrott carriage works.
Mr. Potts went up with the attachment papers in his pocket and severity in his demeanor. He proposed not to be harsh with Mrs. Long, but to be perfectly firm. He didn't know Mrs.
Long very well.

aroused. He put off with seven-league boots across the fields and through the weeds to head off the carriage on the other road. Somebody told him where it would have to pass.
As Mrs. Long, in fancied security, was stepping her horse gaily along the street, smiling at her thoughts, the constable suddenly loomed out from the roadside and held up a forbidding hand.

"Stop," said Potts, with dignity.
Mrs. Long hung her head in pretended shame and surrender. As she sat toying with her whip, her eyes on the ground, Potts advanced firmly.
ZIPI COMES THE WHIP.
He drew near and reached out an official hand for the bridle rein, when swish, zip!

Mrs. Long's long whip wound lovingly around the worthy constable of Potts in a slashing, burning cut.
Potts jumped back with a yell.

Again the whip came down, this time on the back of the startled horse, which sprang forward, leaving the landscape solely occupied by Potts.

Back to Potts floated the sound of a woman's derisive laughter.
Unhappy Potts!

DEATH'S WING
OVER FREITAG
While Blake Awaits Trial for Stark Madness.
Startling Developments in a Dual Tragedy.

A startling turn was given yesterday to the tragic case of Attorney George D. Blake, the story of whose mental collapse was told in yesterday's Times.
Fuller investigation points to the pos-ability that his madness came about through hypnotic influence exerted upon him by the clairvoyant, spiritualist medium and slate-writer, Maud Von Freitag.

To begin this suspicion is the fact that the woman is now dying, at No.
513 East Twelfth street—slowly dying of some disease of the brain; dying under what appears to be a hypnotic spell which she herself cannot throw off.

Lending seeming color to the hypothesis of death and madness through dual hypnotism is the discovery made yesterday, that some weeks ago—a few days before she fell ill of this strange disease—she had been in the company of a woman indulged together in a sort of occult orgy, in the course of which she subjected the unfortunate young lawyer to her full powers of hypnotism. In bringing him under this spell she wrought herself into an extravagantly hysterical condition, and immediately thereafter went into a state of hysteria, to be followed in a day or two by the brain sickness which probably in conjunction with her longtime excessive use of alcoholic liquors is now threatening death.

But the few persons to whom these facts are known, among them several lawyers of the city who have been Blake's friends and are assisting in the investigation of his strange case, are asking each other:
Can it be possible that Blake was never "wakened" by Maud Von Freitag from the hypnotic spell? Would some sudden shock be likely to restore him to his normal condition? Or would he be permanently fixed in a state of hopeless insanity?

In this connection it is recalled by Press dispatches have told of two persons in New York who were so completely under the hypnotic or mesmeric power that they could not be "wakened." One of them died, the other is in a madhouse.

VOICE IN THE WALL
PUZZLES TRAVELERS.
FANCY the wall of a railroad station opening up and yelling that your train is ready!

Beach and mountain travelers were put to the bad at the Pacific Electric Railway station, Sixth and Main streets, when a long, funnel-shaped thing without any visible means of support, shouted from a corner near the ceiling:
"All aboard, Long Beach line—a-l-l a-b-o-a-r-d."
For the first time, the company made use of a new device for announcing trains, not doing away with the applicable and span stationmaster in gold braid and brass buttons, but putting him up on a high perch.

When the stationmaster wants to announce a car now, he shouts through a long tin tube, like the one that leads from the bedroom door to the kitchen, and a megaphone in the waiting-room does the rest.

The highly polished megaphone resembles the horn of a phonograph. Persons who were present at its inauguration found themselves between the horns of a business. Passengers who had been in a railroad station or a talk parlor.

By gum," said a long-bearded man who had a ticket for the alfalfa country down the line, "I have heard of walls havin' ears, but this is the first time I ever seen them talk."
"Pasadena short line car, Pasadena short line," came in a muffled and jumbled tone from the corner, but the voice failed to carry to the farthest corner of the big room, and a Pasadena man who was buried in Fox's "Hook of Martyn" was deaf to the announcement.
A little girl with a cent in her hand went over to the corner, seeking the scent.

"I don't want to go anywhere," she said, "but I like to hear it talk." It was uncanny, the way that thing beamed, like a dog in a wall, and while the day was young the ticket agent sent a messenger flying upstairs with the report that the new wrinkle was a failure.

It was found that the contraption wasn't exactly in working order, but into occult communion with the spirit of Stephen M. White. Presently he began the recitation of a dialogue, in which it was made to appear to those who witnessed the unhappy scene that the dead Senator spoke with the living to go along peacefully, and all would in the end be well—a fortunate though fantastic solution of the problem of arrest.

California del Sur.
NEWS OF THE COUNTRY.
ON ALL NEWS STANDS 15 CENTS
TRAINS AND STREETS

further tests were postponed until late at night, when there would be less interruption to traffic.
The train-calling device is part of a new system that is being installed for the improvement of the facilities of the big passenger station. When these elaborate plans are carried out, there will not be a railroad station in the United States—either steam or electric —that will be as well equipped as that of the Pacific Electric.

With 500 interurban cars arriving at and departing from the station every day, the need is great for the prompt dispatch of trains. A system has been installed, whereby the stationmaster, from an elevated position inside the train shed, can, with levers and electric buttons, control the movement of all cars.
In addition to this duty, he is expected to inform the waiting travelers of the readiness of each car.
As the stationmaster has only an ordinary pair of lungs, and, aside from that, could not with dignity shout from his perch to the waiting-room, the speaking tube-megaphone was hit upon.
After he has given the signal for a car to come aboard, the stationman puts his mouth to the end of the tube that winds around for a number of feet to the end of the waiting-room and cries into it his message.
The early trials indicated that something was wrong. His voice did not seem to carry.
"Louder," called the assistant in the rear of the waiting-room, who was there to see if he could hear the announcement.
"All aboooooooon!" came from the brass horn.
The assistant sent a kick up to the other end of the tube that resulted in a fresh effort.
"Aw, talk up, talk up," cried the helpful, going out into the train shed and waving at Robinson, who was red in the face.

"All aboard for Pasadenaaaaaa," but the last word oozed feebly from the bell of the horn, like a hungry coyote's call dying on the night wind.

"Well, for the love of—say, Robinson, take that chew out of your mouth," bawled the listener, clambering almost to the stationmaster's perch, and then hustling back into the station, only to hear from the end of the megaphone:
"—yelling as loud as I can; I ain't no al-ee-ee, and if you can't hear it you can go."

Engineer McLean, who was installing the device, appeared at this juncture, looking and said he had found the mouthpiece to be too small. He put in a larger one and the later tests indicated that it was the new arrangement for announcing trains will prove successful.

asked pardon for this incredibly, and explained, "Maud," he said, "I dead." I told you of last night. We talk to several days ago, here in my arms. Her soul is here with me now, wrapped close around my heart. We talk to each other when we like, she and I, for she is part of me; her soul and mine are twins, guided together by the harmonious laws, which are the laws of life and death and masters of the earth.
How foolish, then, for you or anyone to bring me a message from Maud's body Theodore. Can you blame me that I laugh?"

HELLMAN TALKS.
President of Farmers' and Merchants' Bank Starts Work on Handsome Building.
Isaac W. Hellman of San Francisco, president of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank of this city, and the owner of much valuable real estate here, left for the north yesterday, after a visit of several days. Mr. Hellman is delighted with the progress of Los Angeles and has pinned his faith to her further advancement by putting architects to work on plans for that splendid new business block at the corner of Fourth and Main streets. In talking of his new enterprise yesterday Mr. Hell-man was a little uneasy on account of the agitation about the saloons. He said:
"Los Angeles is lively and prosperous and people ought to be satisfied. We have built here the most beautiful bank in America and I am about to put up the block surrounding it, but I fear that if the saloons should be voted out it will not pay to put up great buildings."
"I have always favored high license, but I am totally opposed to closing the saloons entirely. You have them so much better regulated here than they are in San Francisco and your license fees are four or five times as high, and I don't think that the people have any complaint about it."
"I fear that if the saloons are closed people will become hypocrites; they will take their liquor home and bring their families to drink as well as themselves."
"I have just returned from a visit to Germany, France and Italy. In all these countries you can buy wine and beer at every place and in practically no drunkenness. I think the people of Los Angeles will make a great mistake if they decide to put the saloons out of business."

OLIVER W. NIXON DEAD.
California Pioneer and Veteran Newspaper Man Passes Away After Short Illness.
Word was received in Los Angeles yesterday of the sudden death at midnight Monday of Oliver W. Nixon of Chicago, at Elwood, Miss. He had been spending the winter with his wife and with Dr. E. K. Parsons, the noted Chicago philanthropist.
Mr. Nixon had many friends and acquaintances in Los Angeles. He was the great uncle of the wife of Dr. J. E. Cowles of this city, and spent some time here two years ago.
He was a pioneer on the Pacific Coast, having come in 1848. He taught school in Oregon for many years, and then went to San Francisco, where he engaged in mining interests.
He was always a man of literary inclinations, and after spending several years on the Coast he returned East, and became a law writer of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, with which he was connected for more than a quarter of a century. He was also the author of several books on scientific subjects.
Mr. Nixon, during the Civil War, was a brigade surgeon for Ohio volunteers, and later he was treasurer of Hamilton county, in which is situated Cincinnati. He went with his wife to Mississippi to spend the winter, and they were planning to return to Chicago when the fatal illness, which was of short duration, attacked him. He was nearly 80 years of age.

MINES AND MINING.

DESERT MINES
TO THE FRONT.NEW YORK MOUNTAINS PROVING A TREASURE HOUSE.

San Bernardino District that it Located in Nevada Would be Attracting Thousands—Searchlight and Vicinity Forging Straight Ahead Every Day.

Since the completion of the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad there has been a great revival of mining operations in the New York Mountains, situated in the northeastern portion of San Bernardino county close to the Nevada line. Were this district located on the other side, thousands would doubtless be rushing to it as they are flocking to Bullfrog and Goldfield, for here have been made strikes fully as good as many of those over which men are running mad in the Sagebrush State.

The district has long been known as one possessing large bodies of fine gold and copper ore, the latter, however, having been of sufficiently high grade to pay for the long haul necessary before the building of the Salt Lake Railroad. A number of companies took up claims and developed them in a small way so as to show their worth, and, while keeping quiet about a number of rich strikes, secured additional properties until now, that the railroad is finished and the iron horse skirts the base of the mountain range giving a ready and easy outlet for ore, they have the greater part of the best mineral land taken up. Although the extension of the Santa Fe from Manvel to Ivanpah gave an impetus to development and attracted attention to the district, it is only now that its worth is beginning to be fully realized.

Among the several Los Angeles companies in the district is the Desert Mining and Reduction Company, which recently struck a ledge of seventy feet, select samples from which assay thousands of dollars to the ton. Average assays go $20 gold and 720 pounds of copper to the ton. The width of the ledge is phenomenal and assays high.

MICA AND MAGNETITE. Another valuable find on this company's property is that of large bodies of mica and magnetite, the latter being found at a depth of forty feet on property which was being developed for the former. Magnetite is a rich find for a mining and smelting company.

As a result of recent strikes there is considerable talk of the erection of mills, smelters and other improvements in the near future. The district is so situated that its trade of all kinds is practically certain to come to Los Angeles, and its development is another evidence of the fact that in Southern California there are still to be found great mineral belts that are bound to contribute millions to the city's wealth. Ore can be readily shipped to the smelter, which is soon to reopen at Needles at $1 a ton. There is also an abundance of water and timber in the mountains.

DEVELOPMENT IN ORANGE.

A ten-mile team has left Bakersfield for the Silverado mining district, twenty miles east of Orange. The mules will be used for hauling ore from the old Dunlap mine to 21 Modena or Orange, for shipment. The mine is owned by the Bourland Mine and Milling Company. The ore is crushed and shipped at the mine where it is crushed for hauling to the depot. From eight to ten men are employed in the development of the property. The ore averages about $200 per ton. SEARCHLIGHT IMPROVING. The Parallel Gold Mining Company has placed an order in this city for a fifteen-horse-power gasoline hoisting engine and several cars of lumber and other supplies to be shipped at once to Searchlight for installation at its mines. A contract for the work has been let to T. D. Fournier of this city. The company has now fifteen claims in the heart of Searchlight. A survey is now being made preparatory to obtaining patent. The main shaft is down 165 feet, and sinking is to be resumed. This property, together with the Cyrus Noble and Santa Fe groups which adjoin it, has produced over $100,000, all from development with 200 feet of the surface.

Development is going on on the Saserac group, owned by Carl Anderson and A. M. Jones of Los Angeles, and F. D. Howells, Jr., of Monrovia. The property is located at Dupont. Thirty-two feet of work has been done on a drift at the 100-foot level, during which the vein has widened from one to three feet. The ore greatly resembles that of the famous Quartzette, and is improving all the time.

The famous Duplex property continues to hold up its great record. On the 300-foot level the high average of $77 a ton struck some months ago is being steadily sustained, and now in another part an enormous body of altered porphyry, twenty feet in width, has been uncovered assaying $47.54 and $52.50 at four feet from the surface.

WILL START MILL. A new mill is to be started within about two weeks at Juniper Camp, twenty miles from Searchlight. At the Chiquita mine at this point there are now 600 tons of ore on the dump awaiting the completion of the mill. This mine has a main shaft down 220 feet, and the main ore shoot has been proven for 300 feet. The vein is two and one-half feet wide, with free-milling ore averaging $15 a ton. A thirty-foot shaft has also been sunk on what is believed to be another and distinct ore shoot. Here eight inches of ore has been found assaying $150 a ton, and five feet that shows $20.

The Juniper has a shaft down 100 feet. The vein that started at six inches is now reported to be twenty feet wide, with ore running $25 to $400.

FINE NEW RESIDENCE BURNED. A new two-story frame residence which had just been completed by Henry Schneider at No. 2863 Dorchester avenue and which had never been occupied, was destroyed by fire at 10:30 o'clock last night. The No. 12 engine company reached the place in time to have saved most of the building had there been any water available but there was no water the firemen could do nothing. The loss will amount to $4000; partially covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is not known.
